BCJLS returns for 61st year

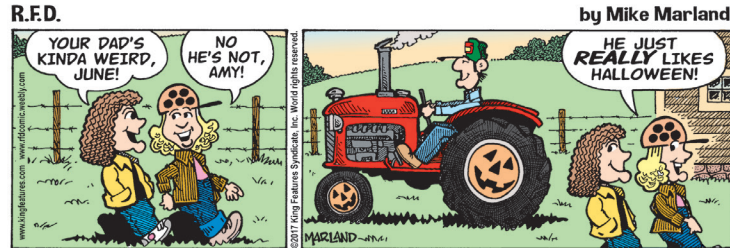

The Bexar County Junior Livestock Show Board of Directors met for their regular meeting in May to approve the show rules for the 61st livestock show.

New to the show for this year will be the Torch Cutting Contest. It will be held during the Ag Mechanics portion of the show. The Board also approved additional auction spots for Arts and Crafts show participants. In other action the BCJLS approved the dates of the show. So after Santa has made his stop at all the houses, and the packages are unwrapped our FFA and 4H students will need to prepare to hit the show barn.

This year the show will begin on December 27 and will conclude on December 30.

The Auction of Champions is slated to be held on January 6, 2024. As of press time the location of the auction has not been decided.

Here come the cluckers: Order your chickens by September 22

For those exhibitors who wish to participate in the poultry division--Market Broilers you will need to order your chickens by September 22.

You may place your order online by logging onto https://bcjls.org/show_information/

If you are new to 4H or FFA and looking for an animal project as a great way to start your BCJLS experience then join the poultry project.

Validation dates set

If you plan to raise a project animal this year, remember the animal must have a current validation tag. If you do not have a validation tag from the State of Texas, you must secure a BCJLS tag.

There are many opportunities throughout the fall to secure the tag. To locate an event offering validation tags, log onto https://bcjls.org/show_information/

Our newsletter wants to hear from you!

This year, we want to hear from our exhibitors. We want it all--birthdays, milestones and accomplishments on the show circuit, funny memories, inspiring pictures, funny pictures, and video clips.

What a great way to document your journey and let others learn what to do or maybe what not to do. Extra points for any pictures of your leaders sleeping on the job.

Stay tuned for exciting challenges, ways to earn some cash, and just have fun this show season.
