Welcome back for 61st BCJLS Show

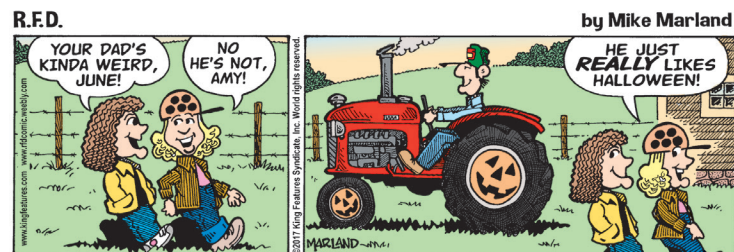

The BCJLS Board of Directors has been very busy this summer planning for the 61st BCJLS Show and Auction.

Last year, the Premium Auction raised over $630,000 for the exhibitors. The Directors plan to increase the sale amount for the 61st. So for all of you who have returned to school and summer break is over--welcome back. Although for Ag kids summer break doesn't really exist.

So where can you find all the latest and greatest information for the 61st show? Let me answer that question for you.

For a complete list of rules and a current schedule you can log onto https://bcjls.org/show_information/. All of the announcements and changes will be listed there first.

Of course, also check out our socials. You can access our Facebook page, Instagram, Twitter, and coming soon our TikTok channel. We look forward to serving you and a great year.

BCJLS Board approves Breeding Swine Show change.

During the August meeting the BCJLS Board decided to make a change to the Breeding Swine Show. To provide exhibitors who will be attending the major shows an opportunity to exhibit their breeding quilts born in June, the Board added that birth month to the current list of classes.

Unlike San Antonio and the other major shows who will be using weight to determine class breaks, the BCJLS Show will use the birth months to determine the classes of breeding gilts.

So if you have a young girl born in June, she is eligible for our show. You can find information and requirements for the breeding show on the BCJLS website. www.bcsjls.org/showinformation

We look forward to everyone coming out in December and what a great start to your show season.

Denim and Diamonds returns for 2nd annual event

The Denim and Diamonds event returns for the second year. This year it will be held on Saturday, October 14. The event will start at 7pm and will conclude at 11pm.

There will be food, music, dancing, games, and a chance to win some prizes.

The cost to attend the event is $25 per couple and tickets can be purchased on the BCJLS website.

Martinez Social Club serves as hosts again this year.

Here come the cluckers: Order your chickens by September 22

For those exhibitors who wish to participate in the poultry division--Market Broilers you will need to order your chickens by September 22.

You may place your order on line by logging onto https://bcjls.org/show_information/

If you are new to 4H or FFA and looking for an animal project as a great way to start your BCJLS experience then join the poultry project.

Validation dates set

If you plan to raise a project animal this year, remember the animal must have a current validation tag. If you do not have a validation tag from the State of Texas, you must secure a BCJLS tag.

There are many opportunities throughout the fall to secure the tag. To locate an event offering validation tags, log onto https://bcjls.org/show_information/

BCJLS BoD is considering a validation event at the show grounds. Stay tune for more information.

Our newsletter wants to hear from you!

This year, we want to hear from our exhibitors. We want it all--birthdays, milestones and accomplishments on the show circuit, funny memories, inspiring pictures, funny pictures, and video clips.

Extra points for any pictures of your leaders sleeping on the job.

To submit your material to the newsletter send it to prsecretary@bcjls.com
